Emily Wood, Barrister, Essex Court Chambers

Emily Wood, Queen's Counsel (designate), is an English barrister practising from Essex Court Chambers in London, widely recognised as the leading arbitration chambers in the UK. Emily specialises in international arbitration, having been ranked in the top tier for the practice area by the legal directories for many years and winning Chambers International Arbitration Junior Barrister of the Year in 2017. She practises in all areas of international arbitration, from a regular diet of appearance in heavy weight commercial arbitrations (including ICC, LCIA, UNCITRAL, SIAC, AAA & JAMS), to enforcement challenges under the New York Convention (both on shore before the Commercial Court of England & Wales (including representing Tatneft in successfully resisting Ukraine's repeated attempts to avoid enforcement of the ICSID award against it) and off shore, including before the Cayman Court of Appeal and presently the Privy Council (VRG v MatlinPatterson), via appearances in many of the leading cases on challenges to arbitration awards under the Arbitration Act 1996. Emily also sits as arbitrator. She has a first class degree in law from the University of Cambridge and a masters in commercial law from the University of Oxford.

James Bremen, Partner, Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan

James is Chair of Quinn Emanuel's Construction and Engineering Practice and has over 20 years of experience in the world's largest and most complex construction projects and most difficult disputes. Clients describe him as "peerless in his knowledge and tactical awareness" - Legal 500 UK 2022 and praise his strategic abilities, saying "James is great at formulating a clear strategic vision and is very calm under pressure." - Chambers UK 2022. He is "first-class, he's our preferred lawyer on arbitrations" - Chambers Global 2020 and as an "exceptional litigation lawyer" - whose "reputation spreads widely throughout the Middle East" and who is "formidable wherever he goes." - Chambers Global, 2017. He has a "stellar disputes practice" - Chambers Global 2017, and has worked in over 25 countries on both project documentation and claim resolution (including as Counsel in some of the world's largest construction arbitrations) in the oil and gas, power and major infrastructure sectors. James "commands considerable respect from peers and clients alike" and "has a wealth of experience from working with multinational oil and gas companies, which gives him excellent insight into the industry" - Chambers Global, 2017. "Market observers affirm James Bremen's prodigious construction disputes practice and praise his skills in litigation. One source describes him as the most experienced and skilled construction litigator in Qatar, if not the region" - Chambers Global, 2016. Who's Who Legal, 2016 notes his "vast experience on the international scene" and "breadth of expertise". Who's Who Legal has ranked him in the area of Construction for a decade and as a Global Thought Leader in Construction in 2020. He has over a decade's experience in representing the State of Qatar and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in construction disputes, and "understands Arab clients' needs extremely well" - Chambers Global, 2015, as well as regularly representing clients in emerging markets, in particular Malaysia and the CIS countries. He is "one of the main players in the market for Qatar-related disputes" - Chambers Global, 2018. James won the prestigious UK Client Choice Award for Construction for 2020, with clients commenting "his availability and commitment is fantastic".

Julian Cohen, Arbitrator & Barrister, Resolution Chambers

Julian has 30 years of specialist experience of heavyweight international, and domestic, disputes. Sums in dispute in his cases vary from small to in excess of USD 2 billion. In addition to acting as counsel, he also regularly sits as an arbitrator. Julian has over 10 years' experience in the MENA region, including 2 years based full time in Dubai, and an ongoing long-term commitment to the region. Julian has been involved in projects and disputes in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Qatar, Oman, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Benin, Sierra Leone and Mali.

Julian was called to the Bar in England & Wales in 1990. He was with Pinsent Masons' Construction Disputes practice in London and Hong Kong from 1993 to 2009. He left Pinsent Masons as a partner in 2009, and was called to the Bar in Hong Kong in 2010.
