Michael D. Lee, Founder, Michael Lee Chambers

Michael D. Lee is the Founder of Michael Lee Chambers. He is a dynamic and accomplished independent international arbitrator, mediator, and consultant with a distinguished career in dispute resolution. Recognized for expertise in international commercial arbitration and mediation, with a deep understanding of the rules and procedures of leading arbitration institutions. Proven track record in managing complex cases and providing effective solutions. Committed to upholding fairness, efficiency, and integrity in all aspects of dispute resolution.

Dr. Eun Young Park, Chair of Global Disputes Group & Co-Head of International Arbitration, Lee & Ko

Dr. Eun Young Park is Chair of the Lee & Ko's Global Disputes Group and Co-Head of International Arbitration Team. With over 30 years of experience in international dispute resolution, he specializes in commercial and investment treaty arbitration. His practice spans various sectors, including M&A, finance, insurance, energy, technology, pharmaceuticals, and overseas investments. He has served as an arbitrator in multiple prestigious institutions, including ICC, SIAC, JCAA, and KCAB, and has represented major clients, such as a prominent US defense company in litigation against the Korean government.

Dr. Park has held leadership roles in numerous organizations, including Vice-President and Court Member of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), and Vice-Chair of the IBA Arbitration Committee. He is also a founding co-chair of the IBA Asia Pacific Arbitration Group and has been involved in drafting the IBA Guidelines on Conflict of Interests in International Arbitration. He has served until recently on the SIAC Court of Arbitration and as Chair on SIAC National Committee on Korea.

Widely recognized for his expertise, Dr. Park has earned top rankings as one of the "Leading Lawyers" in Chambers Asia-Pacific, "Litigation Stars" in Euromoney's Benchmark Litigation, and "Thought Leaders" in Who's Who Legal: Arbitration. In 2020, he received the Grand Prize Award in Arbitration Practice at the Korea Legal Awards for his innovative approach and public contributions. In 2018, he was honored by the Republic of Korea for his contributions to the promotion of arbitration.

Dr. Park has published extensively, including in the ICSID Convention's 50th Anniversary book and various arbitration-related journals. He has co-authored a book on Alternative Dispute Resolution methods globally.

Benjamin Hughes, Independent Arbitrator, Fountain Court Chambers

Benjamin Hughes is an independent arbitrator based in Singapore and Seoul, a door tenant at Fountain Court Chambers in London, a member of the Court of Arbitration of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC), and a member of the Investment Committee of Omni Bridgeway. Previously, Ben was adjunct professor at the National University of Singapore Faculty of Law, associate professor at Seoul National University Law School, the founding co-chair of the international dispute resolution practice group at one of Korea's largest full-service law firms and a member of the international arbitration team at Shearman & Sterling in the US and Singapore.

Ben has been appointed as arbitrator in over 200 international arbitrations with several billion dollars in dispute. His experience spans a broad range of commercial disputes in jurisdictions around the world and governed by all major arbitral rules and various applicable laws.

Kexin Yu, Advocate, Duxton Hill Chambers

Kexin is an advocate at Duxton Hill Chambers in Singapore, which consists of independent practitioners who are leading advocates and arbitrators. She specialises in complex commercial litigation and arbitration, with a focus on shareholder disputes. Recognised by Legal 500 for her expertise in international commercial arbitration, Kexin is a trusted counsel to clients.

Her notable cases include succeeding in a multi-million dollar SIAC arbitration for minority oppression claims, and attaining reliefs in a complex claim for fraud and breach of director's duties involving an international shipping group.

Ronnie King, Senior Foreign Legal Consultant, Ashurst Korea JV

Ronnie King is a senior foreign legal advisor at Ashurst KJV where he has been based since Spring 2023. He commenced practice in 1984 in London and was a partner in Ashurst between 1994 and April 2025 specialising in dispute resolution. Ronnie has particular experience in energy sector disputes, major infrastructure projects and white collar crime. He has been based in Asia since 2016 and is a former managing partner of Ashurst's offices in Singapore and Tokyo. Ronnie has represented S.O.E. companies, international oil majors and independent oil and gas companies in arbitrations and litigations in various jurisdictions and arbitration centres across Europe, the Middle East and Asia.

Ronnie has been recognized in all the major professional guides, especially for his work in arbitration and oil and gas disputes.

Zac Sharpe, Senior Foreign Attorney, Lee & Ko

Zac Sharpe has extensive experience in complex international disputes, including international arbitration and enforcement proceedings in multiple jurisdictions. He has lived and worked in Asia for nearly two decades and his practice covers energy, engineering and construction, investor-state, health care/life sciences, technology, joint venture and M&A disputes.

Zac has acted as counsel in multibillion dollar disputes and in arbitration proceedings at major arbitration centers across Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and North America. He has extensive experience with high stakes and complex disputes involving multiple jurisdictions.

He has represented clients in arbitration proceedings under the rules of the International Chamber of Commerce, the London Court of International Arbitration, the Singapore International Arbitration Centre, the International Center for Dispute Resolution, the Permanent Court of Arbitration, the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board, the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center and the London Maritime Arbitrators Association.

Zac is a solicitor advocate with higher rights of audience in the Senior (Civil) Courts of England & Wales. Zac is also admitted as an attorney in New York and admitted as a foreign lawyer in the Singapore International Commercial Court.

Elizabeth Shin, Senior Foreign Attorney, Lee & Ko

Ms. Elizabeth Shin is a Senior Foreign Attorney in the International Arbitration Team at Lee & Ko. Over the past decade, Ms. Shin's first-class performance in complex high-value commercial, construction and investment treaty arbitrations have earned her much-deserved recognition both at home and abroad. Market commentators have described her as a star player who "provides eloquent advocacy... and operates to an international standard".

Ms. Shin covers a broad range of industries, including trade, infrastructure, energy, nuclear, construction, shareholder disputes, shipping, entertainment, sports, IP and the arts. She played a key role in the heavily reported Kyobo Life Insurance ICC arbitrations which spanned across five years. Ms. Shin also has substantial experience assisting clients in foreign court proceedings in the UK, US and in Europe, and is noted for her ability to handle high-stakes negotiations in multi-billion dollar projects.

She serves as a newly-appointed member of the ERA APAC Sub-Committee and previously served a two-year term as a Member of the Seoul International Dispute Resolution Center's (SIDRC) Public Relations Sub-Committee. Ms. Shin has authored a number of legal publications, including a recent KCAB article examining CAS arbitration, and the South Korea Chapter in "GAR Know-how: Investment Treaty Arbitration".

Ms. Shin was named as a "Next Generation Partner" in International Arbitration by Legal 500 in 2025 and a "Rising Star" in 2023 and 2024. She was also selected as a "Rising Star" in International Arbitration by the Legal Times in 2024, and earlier this year, she was selected by the Korea Economic Daily as one of the three leading female partners at Lee & Ko.

Douglas Clark, Partner, Tanner De Witt

Douglas Clark is an intellectual property partner with Tanner De Witt, an independent firm based in Hong Kong. He commenced practice in Hong Kong in 1993. He was based in Shanghai from 2000 to 2010 where he founded and was managing partner of the office of a large international firm. He handled contentious and non-contentious IP matters in Mainland China including patent litigation, technology transfer and international arbitrations. He moved back to Hong Kong in 2011 and practiced as a barrister until 2020 when he moved to become head of Global Dispute Resolution for an IP boutique firm. He joined Tanner De Witt this year. He has been appointed an arbitrator and acted as counsel in numerous technology disputes involving China. He regularly advises clients on IP issues related to de-risking and digitisation.

Doug is the author of a number of legal texts, including Patent Litigation in China, as well as a history of extraterritoriality in China and Japan, Gunboat Justice. He speaks both Japanese and Mandarin fluently.

Mimi Ahn, Director, Focus Law Asia

Mimi is a Director of Focus Law Asia and a Korean national who is called to the Singapore Bar. She is one of very few Korean nationals fully qualified to practice and regularly appear before the Singapore courts.

With over a decade of experience in litigation and arbitration, Mimi has built a strong reputation for representing clients in complex, high-value disputes across a broad spectrum of commercial litigation, international arbitration, insolvency, shipping, and criminal matters. She regularly appears before the Singapore High Court and State Courts and has acted in international arbitrations under major institutional rules, including SIAC, and ICC with arbitral seats in Singapore, New York, and other key jurisdictions.

Mimi has developed a strong interest in the intersection of technology and law, particularly the evolving regulatory and enforcement landscape surrounding digital assets. She advises both startups and established entities on crypto licensing, compliance with MAS regulations, and cryptocurrency-related disputes.

Jerome McDonagh, Director, MDD Forensic Accountants

Jerome has over 15 years of experience in Forensic Accounting. He joined MDD in 2015 and is Director of their Litigation Support Services in Hong Kong. He focuses on matters related to business valuation, business disputes, loss of profits and fraud & investigations. He has extensive experience in litigation support and has acted as an expert witness in Hong Kong and UK court proceedings.

In business valuations, Jerome has advised clients and acted as an expert witness in a variety of assignments including shareholder disputes, divorce proceedings, and valuations of start-ups and mature businesses. The assignments relate to parties from various jurisdictions including Hong Kong, Singapore, PRC, Korea, Cayman Islands and United Kingdom.

Jerome has been involved in numerous damage quantification matters including loss of profits, post-M&A breaches of warranties and aborted contract claims.

Clarence Lun, Director & Head of Dispute Resolution and International Arbitration, Fervent Chambers

Clarence is the Founder of Fervent Chambers LLC. Prior to setting up Fervent Chambers LLC, Clarence has held the role of Group General Counsel at 2 major listed oil and gas companies in Singapore. Clarence returned to private practice and practiced at the dispute resolution department of an international law firm and a couple of leading local law firms before he subsequently set up Fervent Chambers LLC.

Clarence has extensive experience working on shipping, oil and gas, engineering, construction and infrastructure project disputes. In recent times, given his sectorial exposure to the offshore maritime industry and the downturn, Clarence has actively been involved in oil and gas, offshore energy and maritime disputes as well as insolvency related claims. Clarence is constantly instructed by liquidators and judicial managers to advise the liquidators and judicial managers on discharge on their duties as well as claims relating to breaches of fiduciary duties, unfair preference and undervalue transactions.

Arising from recognition on the arbitration, commercial and insolvency work undertaken by Clarence, Clarence has been featured in global arbitration review and global restructuring review. Having graduated with a double degree in law and science (biological science), Clarence also has a keen interest in medical negligence as well as matters relating to administrative law that has gained publicity.

Moses W. Park, Barrister, Liberty Chambers

Moses W. Park is a dispute resolution lawyer practicing as a barrister (trial advocate) based in Hong Kong. His practice mainly focuses on conduct and resolution of cross-border and international commercial arbitration and litigation. He has handled a broad spectrum of commercial work with an emphasis on civil fraud, asset tracing / recovery, enforcement of foreign arbitral awards/judgments, family office as well as shareholder disputes. Moses has expertise concerning recovery strategies and emergency relief measures related to fraud including Mareva injunctions, Norwich Pharmacal orders and asset tracing proceedings. He is well versed in the enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards process in Hong Kong. His clients have included multi-national corporations and businesses as well as high and ultra-high net worth individuals. Moses specialises in multi-jurisdictional financial crime and regulatory matters. He advises financial institutions on cross-border fraud and asset recovery related issues and has particular expertise in conducting complex multi-jurisdictional asset tracing. His experience spans a wide range of industry sectors, particularly, financial services, family offices and private equity funds. His work extends to regulatory fields (providing advice on matters governed by securities and banking legislation). Lately, he has been advising international clients on regulatory issues relating to overnance and regulation of family offices.

Sangyub (Sean) Lee, Deputy Director & Senior Counsel, KCAB INTERNATIONAL

Mr. Sangyub (Sean) Lee is the Deputy Director and Senior Counsel at KCAB INTERNATIONAL, the international division of the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (KCAB), and an attorney admitted to the New York State Bar.

Before joining KCAB INTERNATIONAL, he worked as a journalist and in-house counsel at The Korea Economic Daily, one of South Korea's most influential newspaper companies. In this role, he contributed to increasing public awareness of KCAB's achievements and potential by writing various articles, particularly on international arbitration.

At KCAB INTERNATIONAL, Mr. Lee is responsible for promoting the institution by managing diverse networks within the international arbitration community. He also serves as case counsel, administering international arbitration cases and ensuring procedural efficiency and cost-effectiveness under the KCAB or UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules.

He has actively contributed to the development of ADR in the Republic of Korea by leading KCAB INTERNATIONAL's public relations efforts and helping to raise Seoul's profile as a preferred seat of arbitration for both domestic and international users. He also teaches as an adjunct professor at Yonsei University, further supporting the next generation of legal professionals.

Mr. Lee has been recognized by Lexology Index (previously Who's Who Legal) as a leading practitioner in South Korea - Arbitration for 2024 and 2025.

Marcus Khoury, Head of Legal, Averda

Marcus Antoine Khoury is Head of Legal at Averda. Marcus has been working as an inhouse legal counsel in the construction industry in the GCC, in particular in Saudi Arabia and in the UAE, for the past 20 years. He is both German and Lebanese and has graduated at the Sorbonne in Paris and the Universities of Cologne and Munich. In his spare time Marcus loves to hike and considers having walked more than 1000 km to the Spanish city of Santiago de Compostela as one of his greatest experiences.

Michele Sonen, Head of APAC, Jus Mundi

Michele Sonen is the Head of APAC at Jus Mundi, a global legal AI company that powers global justice. In this role, she works with law firms, corporates, and governments across the region to leverage Jus Mundi's AI technology to boost productivity and access comprehensive legal intelligence in international arbitration.

Michele is qualified as an attorney in the United States and brings deep expertise in international arbitration. Prior to joining Jus Mundi, she held a leadership role at a leading arbitral institution, where she oversaw strategy and stakeholder engagement in Northeast Asia and the Middle East. She also practiced international arbitration at a top-tier law firm in Seoul, representing clients from Asia, North America, and Europe, in commercial arbitrations under the rules of major arbitral institutions. Michele has been recognized as a Future Leader in arbitration by Who's Who Legal.
