David Brynmor Thomas, K.C., International Arbitrator & Mediator

David Brynmor Thomas is King's Counsel of England and Wales and now exclusively sits as a leading international commercial arbitrator and mediator. He is also an honorary professor of law in the School of International Arbitration at the Centre for Commercial Law Studies at Queen Mary University of London where he teaches International Construction Contracts and Arbitration. David has more than 30 years of experience in international arbitration in which he has been arbitrator or counsel in over 30 jurisdictions globally. David has been appointed in over 70 disputes as sole, party-appointed or presiding arbitrator in ad hoc and institutional commercial arbitrations. He is presently sitting in arbitrations in a range of seat arising from EPC contracts for infrastructure projects, Upstream Energy projects and general commercial and investment disputes.

Gary Born, Chair, International Arbitration Practice Group, Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP

Gary Born is Chair of the International Arbitration Practice Group at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP and the world's pre-eminent authority on international commercial arbitration and international litigation. He has served as counsel in over 675 arbitrations, including several of the largest arbitrations in ICC and ad hoc history, and has sat as arbitrator in more than 250 institutional and ad hoc arbitrations.

Mr. Born has published a number of leading works on international arbitration, international litigation and other forms of dispute resolution. He is the author of International Commercial Arbitration (Third Edition, Kluwer 2020), the leading treatise in the field, which has received the American Society of International Law's Certificate of Merit for High Technical Craftsmanship and OGEIMID's Book of the Year award for 2009. He is an Honorary Professor of Law at the University of St Gallen, Switzerland and Tsinghua University, Beijing, and teaches regularly at law schools in Europe, Asia and North and South America.

Mr. Born is a former President of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) Court of Arbitration, a member of the International Advisory Board of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC), a member of the International Arbitration Committee of the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board (KCAB), a member of the Global Advisory Board of the New York International Arbitration Center (NYIAC), and a member of the Jerusalem Arbitration Center's Court of Arbitration.

Among many accolades, Mr. Born has received the Global Arbitration Review inaugural "Advocate of the Year" award, the Client Choice award for "Best International Arbitration Practitioner" and the Best Lawyers "London Arbitration Lawyer of the Year" award. He is one of only two practitioners in London and globally to achieve "starred" status for international arbitration in the Chambers guides. In 2018 Chambers recognized him for his "Outstanding Contribution to the Legal Profession," describing him as the world's foremost authority on international arbitration and litigation, "in a class of his own" and "revered around the world for his work on international commercial and investor arbitration."

Euan Lloyd, Partner, Al Tamimi & Company

Riyadh-based partner Euan Lloyd leads Al Tamimi & Company's Construction & Infrastructure practice. Qualified as a solicitor in both England & Wales and New South Wales, Euan has practised across a wide range of civil and common law jurisdictions throughout Europe, the Middle East, and Asia Pacific. He also served as Group General Counsel for a global construction and engineering company for more than four years. This combination of private practice expertise and senior in-house experience gives him a unique, commercially grounded perspective that clients value on complex, high-stakes projects.

Euan brings extensive experience in both contentious and non-contentious construction matters, including arbitration, court proceedings, expert determination, and mediation or conciliation, and advises on high-value concession agreements, construction contracts, O&M agreements, and consultancy arrangements across power, utilities, infrastructure, building, and large-scale development projects.

Recognised as a Leading Partner for Real Estate and Construction in the 2025 edition of The Legal 500, Euan is noted for his work on market-leading projects across Saudi Arabia.

Lara Hammoud, Independent Arbitrator

Lara Hammoud is a globally sought-after arbitrator, recognised for her extensive expertise in international arbitration. She is a qualified French lawyer with over twenty years of experience in international arbitration. Prior to becoming a full-time arbitrator in July 2024, Lara spent a decade as in-house counsel, heading the Disputes Team at Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC). Prior to ADNOC, Lara started her career in Paris at the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) before moving to private practice with a Magic Circle law firm in Paris and Abu Dhabi.

Lara has acted as tribunal chair, sole and party-appointed arbitrator in both common and civil law jurisdictions under UNCITRAL, DIAC, DIFC-LCIA, SIAC, BCDR, ADCCAC, LCIA, ArbitrateAD and ICC arbitration rules seated in Europe, Asia, and the Middle East.

Lara co-founded the highly successful Civil Law Conference in Abu Dhabi. She is the writer and editor of numerous articles and books on international arbitration and regularly appears as a speaker at international conferences and arbitration workshops.

Lara is regularly recognised in the directories, including most recently as a Global Elite Thought Leader in the Lexology Arbitration Index 2026, and Chambers & Partners, Most In Demand Arbitrators, UAE 2025.

Lara speaks fluent Arabic, English and French and is proficient in Italian. She was an ICC Court member until June 2024 and is currently a member of the ArbitrateAD Court of Arbitration, the Mumbai Centre for International Arbitration Council as well as the Singapore International Arbitration Centre.

Reshma Oogorah, Co-Chair, Ciarb UAE Branch

Reshma Oogorah FCI Arb is an independent international arbitrator, dual-qualified as a Barrister and Solicitor in Mauritius and England & Wales. She sits as presiding, co- and sole arbitrator in ad hoc and institutional arbitrations, and handles disputes across common and civil law systems in the Middle East, Africa, Asia and Europe. She is regularly appointed in construction disputes and has broad experience across the energy and technology sectors, including high-value, complex commercial and construction matters.

Recognised in the Lexology Index: Arbitration 2026 (previously Who's Who Legal) for her expertise as both counsel and arbitrator, Reshma drives disciplined case management grounded in a practical understanding of projects and contracts. She previously served in-house at the Abu Dhabi National Oil Company (ADNOC), where she developed and implemented dispute-prevention and resolution strategies across construction, energy and M&A portfolios, and advised and represented the business in negotiation and arbitration. She also brings substantial private practice experience across the UAE, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, the United Kingdom and Mauritius, having led cross-border dispute strategy and advocacy on complex commercial matters.

She is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, co-chairs the Ciarb UAE Branch, and serves as approved faculty delivering arbitration and ADR training internationally. Based in Abu Dhabi, Reshma accepts appointments globally as arbitrator (chair, co-arbitrator or sole) as well as dispute board member.

Julian Cohen, Arbitrator & Barrister, Resolution Chambers

Julian has 30 years of specialist experience of heavyweight international, and domestic, disputes. Sums in dispute in his cases vary from small to in excess of USD 2 billion. In addition to acting as counsel, he also regularly sits as an arbitrator. Julian has over 10 years' experience in the MENA region, including 2 years based full time in Dubai, and an ongoing long-term commitment to the region. Julian has been involved in projects and disputes in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Qatar, Oman, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Benin, Sierra Leone and Mali.

Julian was called to the Bar in England & Wales in 1990. He was with Pinsent Masons' Construction Disputes practice in London and Hong Kong from 1993 to 2009. He left Pinsent Masons as a partner in 2009, and was called to the Bar in Hong Kong in 2010. Julian is particularly well known for his heavy weight practice in relation to the Construction and Engineering sectors, the Energy, Oil and Gas sectors and International and domestic arbitrations.

Shobna Chandran, Director, Shobna Chandran LLC

Michael Patchett-Joyce, Barrister, 3 Hare Court

Michael Patchett-Joyce has extensive experience and expertise in domestic and international dispute resolution. As a barrister, he has been instructed on cases across the whole spectrum of domestic courts and tribunals from first instance to all appellate levels (including a petition to appeal to the UK Supreme Court). As a "hands-on" practitioner, he works cases requiring detailed legal research and analysis. He has an ability to master complex factual circumstances and relishes getting to grips with cases involving voluminous evidence. Michael has a proven successful track-record of leading multi-national teams in litigation and arbitration, and is adept at working in civil law, as well as common law environments. Internationally, he has regularly appeared in cases in international commercial courts in the Gulf (the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) and the Abu Dhabi Global Market (ADGM) Courts), again at first instance and on appeals. Historically, he acted in 4 cases before the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU). Michael has acted as arbitration Counsel in commercial arbitrations, seated internationally; in particular, in the various onshore and 'offshore' Gulf jurisdictions.

Michael has also acted as arbitrator (chair, panel member and sole arbitrator) in arbitrations under a wide range of institutional Rules, as well as ad hoc arbitrations. Michael has been a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb) since 2012. He is accomplished in negotiated dispute resolution and mediation and has been a CEDR-accredited mediator since 2015. Michael has been appointed to the Global Advisory Committee of the Saudi Center for Commercial Arbitration (SCCA) and to the International Supervisory Board of the Organisation for Islamic Cooperation Arbitration Centre (OIC-AC).
