Michael D. Lee is the Founder of Michael Lee Chambers. He is a dynamic and accomplished independent international arbitrator, mediator, and consultant with a distinguished career in dispute resolution. Recognized for expertise in international commercial arbitration and mediation, with a deep understanding of the rules and procedures of leading arbitration institutions. Proven track record in managing complex cases and providing effective solutions. Committed to upholding fairness, efficiency, and integrity in all aspects of dispute resolution.

Jinhee Kim, Global Practice Chair, Jipyong

Jinhee KIM is the Global Practice Chair and Head of Global Dispute Resolution Team at Jipyong LLC. She handles cross-border litigation and international arbitration. She has unparalleled depth and width of experience in cross-border disputes spanning the Americas, Asia, Europe, and Africa. She has litigated dozens of U.S. class actions, multi-jurisdictional lawsuits and high-profile disputes that have attracted heavy media attention. She has also negotiated and settled more than 200 cross-border disputes. Jinhee KIM has continuously been acclaimed and ranked by global institutions in her discipline.

Tan Sri Nallini Pathmanathan, Independent Arbitrator & Mediator

Nallini is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a certified mediator. She presently sits as a full-time arbitrator and mediator. Nallini was appointed a judge of the Qatar International Court and Dispute Resolution Centre (QICDRC) as of end March 2026. She has yet to be benched. Appointed to the Bench in 2007, Nallini is the first female judge of South Asian ethnicity to be elevated to the superior judiciary in Malaysia. She served in the High Court, specifically the Kuala Lumpur Commercial Court and the Admiralty Court, before being elevated to the Court of Appeal in 2014 and to then to the Federal Court, Malaysia's apex court, from 2018 until her retirement on 23 February 2026.

She was conferred honorary awards by the King in 2014 and in 2023. Nallini holds a degree in Physiology from the University of London and undertook the conversion course in law, prior to being called to the English Bar in 1984. She then joined Skrine in Kuala Lumpur and practiced at the Bar for 21 years before her appointment to the Bench.

Also, Dr. Nassar is appointed frequently as an arbitrator and has chaired many tribunals.

Laurie-Anne Grelier, Of Counsel, Covington & Burling

Laurie-Anne Grelier assists Korean and global companies, especially Asian multinationals, with navigating the competition law and foreign investment aspects of their activities in Europe. Laurie-Anne cumulates more than 10 years of experience advising these companies on complex, high-stake European competition law issues, including antitrust and cartel investigations, the clearance of transactions, the structuring of licensing, distribution, collaborative and other commercial arrangements, issues related to abuse of dominance, and the structuring of compliance programs. This extends to representing these companies in litigation before the European Courts, whether to challenge regulatory decisions or to defend multi-million private antitrust claims.

A growing part of her practice encompasses assisting these companies with the control of their investments under CFIUS-like regimes in Europe and the new EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation.

Laurie-Anne also advises Asian companies on the application of new regulations in the technology sector, such as the EU Digital Markets Act.

Moses W. Park, Barrister, Liberty Chambers

Moses W. Park is a dispute resolution lawyer practicing as a barrister (trial advocate) based in Hong Kong. His practice mainly focuses on conduct and resolution of cross-border and international commercial arbitration and litigation. He has handled a broad spectrum of commercial work with an emphasis on civil fraud, asset tracing /recovery, enforcement of foreign arbitral awards/judgments, and family office as well as shareholder disputes.

Moses has expertise concerning recovery strategies and emergency relief measures related to fraud including Mareva injunctions, Norwich Pharmacal orders and asset tracing proceedings. He is well versed in the enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitral awards process in Hong Kong. His clients have included multi-national corporations and businesses as well as high and ultra-high net worth individuals. Moses specialises in multi-jurisdictional financial crime and regulatory matters. He advises financial institutions on cross-border fraud and asset recovery related issues and has particular expertise in conducting complex multi-jurisdictional asset tracing. His experience spans a wide range of industry sectors, particularly, financial services, family offices and private equity funds. His work extends to regulatory fields (providing advice on matters governed by securities and banking legislation). Lately, he has been advising international clients on regulatory issues relating to overnance and regulation of family offices.

Young Shin Um, Senior Counsel, International Arbitration Team, KCAB INTERNATIONAL

Young Shin Um is a Senior Counsel at the International Arbitration Team.

Young Shin worked as a Senior Deputy Director at the International Dispute Settlement Division in the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Korea, where she managed investor-state disputes and represented the Korean government in ICSID Rules Reform Project and in UNCITRAL Working Group III.
